SERUM IN PLAGUE CASES.

Speaking at a meeting of the Bombay Medical Profession on the 18th ult. Dr. Turner, the Health Officer of Bombay; delivered an address which was chiefly concerned with the use of Lustig's serum in plague cases. Dr. Turner made the following remarks on the state of knowledge concerning plague :--

The micro-organism which is associated with plague was discovered by Kitasate in 1894 Messis. Jardine Matheson and Co.'s steamer during the epidemic in Hongkong, and observations have been made on it by almost every known bacteriologist. It is present in the characteristic bubos of bubonic plague, often in pure culture, but frequently associated with streptococci and staphylococci. The organism is described as a short thick coccobaccilus forming diplococcal forms, but is chief engineer of the steamer Pechili. In 1880 also found in straptonoccal chains in the peritonial effusions and takes on involu- the Indo-China Steam Navigation Co., and in tion forms in artificial media. It is also present in the organs and lympathics, and in | dent of the same Company, Mr. Buchanan was later stages in the blood. It is claimed by a native of Dumbarton, Scotland. He left some observers that the organism is mortile, Shanghai, with his wife and child, in the best but this is denied by the majority. No accu- of spirits at 5 p.m. on Friday last, 4th instant, rate information is at hand that it is sporebear- in a special steam tug and joined the ing, but more investigation is required in this German mail steamer Prinz Heinrich. He direction. It grows hest at a temperature below | was on his way home on a well-carned year's "blood-heat, 30 deg. to 76 deg. centigrade, but | holiday. On his way down to Foochow he can live and thrive at 6 deg. centigrade. It had an attack of cholera, and on arrival at the has resisted the cold of a Russian winter, and it retains its vitality for many months when | shortly afterwards. He was a man that was grown artificially in suitable media in the presence of moisture and oxygen. It is feebly beloved wherever, he went on account of his resistant to dry heat and chemical disinfectants; sterling qualities. He was only married in the a temperature of 70 deg. c.c. kills the organism, latter end of 1899. We sincerely sympathise and I in 1,000 solution of acid perchloride of with his wife, child, and relatives and his mercury is sufficient to render it inert. The organism has been found in

RATS, MICE SQUIRRELS, CATS &c. . It has not been satisfactorily determined in soil, air, water, or food.

Speaking generally, plague is not, under ordinary conditions, a highly infectious disease. as is shown by the immunity which exists in those in contact with and attending on the sick. Its infectivity depends chiefly on direct infection, enhanced by overcrowding insanitary houses, famine, poverty, and disease... It particular cases of pneumonic plague, a high degree of infection has been noticed,

It is a well established fact that the scrum of the blood of animals which have been infected with repeated inoculations of the specific germ and toxin of diphtheria is capable, of acting as an antidote to the poison secreted by the specific diphtheria germ in the human body. Working on this basis, Yers'n and Lustig experimented with a view to its application in the case of plague. The method of Yersin differs from that of Lustig, but in both the object was to find out an anti-toxin to the poison given off by the plague bacteria. In the case of plague it is different from diphtheria, where the organism remains in situ and excretes a poison which is known as toxia, while

PLAGUE ORGANISM IS BOTH TOXIC AND. SEPTICÆMIC.

The plague organism being found in the blood as well as in the organs and glands, contains a protein within the protoplasmic substance of the microbe itself. The difficulty then which occurs, and which has still to be overcome, is to ascertain what substance exists in the blood and what addiment is required to be capable of acting as an anti-toxin and bactericidal and causing dissolution of the protoplasm. The experiments of Pheiffer. Menchukoff and Bordet, Bullock and Klein, and others show why the serum from the blood of an animal immunised against cholera is unable to cure a human being suffering from that disease, and the same reason applies to plague, and the knowledge we possess at present does not include what the anti-bady in the blood is or how it is produced. From the experiments which have been performed much knowledge has been gained, but much labour and time will still be required before any practical Slays, Mr. O. Vaupel-Kleyn. From Southampton, May 19. result can be obtained. The object for which the Municipality instituted the laboratory for the preparation of

AN ANTI-PLAGUE SERUM

has anly partly been accomplished. The results so far as obtaining an antidote for. de Proidville Mrs. Richards, Dr. J. G. F. Riedel, Mr. G. C. plague have not been successful; but that many valuable lives have been tayed cannot be denied, and it has supplemented the knowledge obtained by most recent observers. Results of scientific investigations of the most delicate and tedious and dangerous description cannot be made to order. In the time of panic the preparation of serum began; immediate demand was made for serum of which great things were expected; the results were hurried; the serum was used before it was ready. The class of patients on whom it was tried and the faith. Millions are bought daily on nothing condition of the hospital treatment were all · against successful results. Even if the serum was the best obainable. I do, not ask you to accept all or any of the figures as promising that Lustig's plague serum is the antidote for plague. I maintain, however, that here in this city of Bombay, where plague has existed for six years, scientific investigation into the causes and cure of the disease ought to be carrived out .... The direction these investion tions should take is-(1) the anti-toxic and La Grippe, General Debility, Throat and Lung bactericidal properties of serum for animals immunised by living or dead bacteria or their products; (2) the chemistry and pathology othe blood of such immunised animals; (3) exf combined with the Compound. Syrup of periments on animals with the toxins and metallic products of plague bacilli and standardising the dose of anti-toxin; (4) reducing the quantity, increasing the strength of the anti-toxin serum so as to bring the dose to a gratifying." It is effective from sensitive and reasonable quantity; and (6) investigations into the conditions of the blood of every patient suffering from plague during the whole period of the disease.

THE DEATH OF MR. COLIN BUCHANAN.

The following is from the Shanghai Mercury !-

The many friends of Mr. Colin Buchanan, late Marine Superintendent of the 1-C.S. Navigation Company, will regret to learn that he died to-day (the 7th instant) at the Pagoda Anchorage from cholera. Mr. Buchanan joined Glenariney, as fourth engineer, 1869. He went home in 1872 and came out again in 1873 as chiefengineer of the steamer Haining. He again went home in 1878 returning the same year as chief engineer of the steamer Shunler. He joined the steamer El Dorado as chief engineer in 1879 and the same year he was appointed he was appointed Superintendent Engineer of 1886 he was promoted to Marine Superinten-Pagoda Anchorage he was landed, but he died well-known all over China, and esteemed and many friends in their sad loss.

SEA FIGHT OFF HONMOKU.

About seventeen fishermen belonging to Honmoku were engaged in sardine fishing about thirty cho from the Honmoku shore on the 22nd ult., together with another fishingboat manned by about an equal number of fishermen belonging to Kisaradzu, Chiba-ken. Shortly afterwards a quarrel took place from some slight can 'e, and the two hoats approaching each other, the thirty-five fishermen manning them proceeded to batter each other with oars and other weapons. The trouble was quickly settled by the timely intervention of several of the inhabitants of Honmoku. About six persons sustained more or less injuries, and are now receiving medical treatment at Honmoku.

THE WORD OF HONOUR.

The men who do as they say; the things that prove to be what they were said to be,-how cheering it is to come upon them. We all hate to be deceived; especially when the deception is intentional. But all men are not liars, even if David did say so in his haste. If they were society would be impossibile. Everybody knows that business is based on credit, on more solid than the pledged promises of men, -not written, merely verbal. The Stock Exchanges are often called nests of gamblers, yet nowhere is a promise held in greater honour. Therefore when we say that the tried and effective modern remedy called, "Wampole's Preparation" never deceives any who resort to it in hope of benefit and cure, we may expect to be believed. For this assurance is given on what it has done in the past in countless cases, on its record. It is only recommended to accomplish what it was made to accomplish. Its action in Chlorosis, Anemia Troubles, Blood Impurities, etc. is convincing. It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Dr. Austin D. Irvine, of Canada, says: "I have used it in cases where cod liver, oil was indicated but could not be taken by the patient, and the results following were very nervous stomachs, It cannot deceive or disappoint you, and comes to the rescue of those who have received no benefit from any other treatment. It stands for the medical triumphs of the age. - Sold by all chemists here.

A GRAND REUNION, of Chinese students studying in Japan took place on the 4th ult. at Tokio, having been invited to meet Mr. Wu-Ju-lun, Hanlin Academist and Head Professor of Chinese Literature in the Peking University. Mr. Wu had recently arrived in Tokio from Peking to visit the various institutions of learning in Japan and take notes regarding them. for the future guidance of those in authority in the Peking University. Altogether over 600 young Chinese were present, and Mr. Wu was welcomed most heartily by them.

THE TROUBLE AT ETON:-There was trouble lately at Eton. Certain bad boys stopped up a number of locks with plaster, of Paris. Though the leave of the whole school was stopped, the masters were unable to discover from the boys themselves who were the culprits. Two ringleaders, however, have now "owned up" In addressing the school upon the matter. Dr. Warre, the head master, said it had been within his knowledge who the offenders were, but he admired the esprit de corps of the school in not "peaching" upon the guilty ones.

ACCIDENT TO SIR BROOKE BOOTHBY: -Sir Brooke Boothby, 1st Secretary of the British Legation in Tokyo met with a nasty accident on the 18th ult. while driving to Viscount Acki's. Some little boys who were carrying a Buddhist shrine on their shoulders and shouting at the same time with all their might, accidentally scared Sir Brooke's horses which ran into a ditch on the side of the road. The carriage was smashed, reports the Japan Times, and the betto was insensible for an hour after, but the Baronet escaped, we are glad to say, without a scratch.

> DESERTION FROM THE MACAO POLICE FORCE - Information has been received by the Honekong Police authorities that three European soldiers have deserted from the Macao Police force and left for Fong kong. The Macao Government, thinking that the men had already been arrested, sent an officer here yesterday to convey the deserters back. As the warrants were not made out for their arrests until this morning, the officer spent yesterday afternoon, in strolling in the public gardens and much to his surprise came upon the three men. Before the police could be found to arrest them, they took to their heels and disappeared from view.

JAPANESE SHIPOWNERS UNION:-The members of the Japan Shipowners' Union held a meeting at Osaka a few days ago and passed a resolution to petition the Government te appoint a Consul or commercial agent at Talien wan and Port Arther; to give a bounty to foreign going vessels which do not come under the Shipbuilding Subsidy Laws by making restrictions with regard to ages, speed, etc. to abolish the subsidy for inland navigation, with the exception of the Kuriles, Kitami, coast, etc., and to establish a bank with six per cent, guaranteed profit for the encouragement: of marine business with a view to making the same a monetary organ for the sea carrying traders in general.

REVISION OF THE COMMERCIAL TREATY:-After the arrival of H.E. Sheng H.E. Lu and Sir James Mackay at Nankin a meeting was immediately held with Viceroy Liu about the free exportation of rice and importation of foreign salt. This, the Vicerov has very strongly opposed. With regard to the total abolition of likin tax and an increase of __ duty filteen per cent. ad valorem on all goods should be collected on the condition that Commissioners of Customs undertake to do this kind of work. But according to Sir James Mackay's opinion twelve and half per cent, should be the maximum duty on goods. The Viceroy seems to agree with this, and promises to abolish all likin stations on banks of rivers with the exception of those on salt; as well as the stations on land.

HOOLIGAN OUTRAGE: -An addition lias

been made to the number of outrages already committed by the London "Hooligans," observes an exchange. Mr. Murray Spicer, a prominent City business man, succumbed on the 4th ult. at the University College Hospital to injuries received in an encounter with a band of youthful ruffians early on the previous morning. Mr. Spicer, was about 35 years of age, and was connected with the well-known paper manufacturing firm of Spicer Brothers, had been in the West-end with a friend watching the crowds celebrate the proclams ion of peace. Soon after midnight the two gentlemen were on their way bome, and when in the peighborhood of Gower-st. they were set upon by a gang of roughs, numbering about a dozen, one of whom struck Mr. Spicer on the head with the buckle end of a heavy belt. Mr. Spicer fell, and another blow rendered him unconscious. It is alleged that four or five of his assailants then rifled his pockets and robbed him of everything of value, they could find. Mr. Spicer's companion did his best to obtain assistance by shouting, and two passers-by arriving on the scene the roughs made off. Mr. Spicer was then conveyed in an unconscious condition to University College Hospital, where the operation of trepanning was performed on the Wednesday by Dr. Victor Horsley, the Brain specialist, but death took place a few hours later. Up to the present the identity of Mr. Spicers assailants is not known. The deceased gentleman had served at the front with the Imperial Ycomanny, and had anly recently returned to England

THE ALLEGED ROBBE LY OF

The remanded case in which a Chinaman, named Pun Pak To, was charged with receiving $10,000, on the 20th May last well-knowing the same to have been stolen, was resumed before Mr. Hazeland this morning. Mr. Looker appear ed for the prosecution, and Mr. Harston for the defence. A wait of habens corpus was served on the defendant's brother, who was in gaol awaiting his trial at the next Sessions, to give evidence. He was put in the box and cautioned by the Magistrate not to answer any question that would incriminate himself. His depositions are as follows:- I was employed in the Yuen Fong Yuen Bank, at No. 47 Bonham Strand. Defendant is my brother, and he is employed in a rice shop in Suj Lam. He has not been here before, and I do not know when he came down. On 24th June when I was on my trial in this Court, it was the first time I saw him. I donot know where he was staying, and I do not know why he came here. I do not know the date I last wrote to my brother; it was no on the 5th moon (it will be remembered tha when the witness was brought to the Station he made a statement to the police that he wrote to his brother on the 19th May requesting him to come down to Hongkong as his employers always entrusted him with large sums of money to pay out); but it was this year. On the 17th April when Leame back here I wrote to my brother saying that I arrived safely; that was the last letter. When I went to my native land to worship he was not staying in the same house, but in the shop. My brother was an accountant in the rice shop, and I was surprised to see him in the Court. He never said he was coming down, and I do not know the reason why he came here. I wrote to him because my nunt cannot read. I do not remember what I said in my letter, except of my safe arrival. Our family is very poor. I do recognize this man (Chinese Detective sergeant)"-Mr. Harston objected to a question put by Mr. Looker to the witness on the ground of adversity and hostility. The question was-Did this man ever ask you to copy from memory a letter which was written to your brother? Witness: -No. Question: Did you not tell this man in the Police station you had handed the $10,000, to your brother? Mr. Harston again objected, whereupon Mr. Hazeland remanded the case until Monday at

ARMS AND AMMUNITION.

They may perhaps have strange ideas at Canton concerning the Colony. A visitor who came down last evening brought with him a revolver and 31 rounds of ammunition. He. did not reckon on the certificate, with the result that he was arrested and charged with . To being unlawfully possessed of arms. The police did not press the charge, and the "new chum" got off with a fine of a dollar, and the loss of the revolver and cartridges.

· A LUCKY BOY. For ten long summers a certain native boy has been toiling along the path of iniquity, and despite the many obstacles placed in his way has made rapid progress. His latest accomplishment will doubtless cause him pain, and should put a pretty strong brake on his downward career. He stole wood to the value of a dollar, and secures forty-eight hours ingaol during which an opportunity will be taken to inflict upon him twenty-four strokes of the birch. Many convictions are recorded against him, and though he may return from gaol suffering to a greater or less extent, he should appreciate the kindness of the Magistrate in teaching him the folly of his ways.

HONGKONG CHURCH MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION.

The Annual Meeting of the Hongkong

Church Missionary Association was held at Exeter Hall, London, on the evening of 6th May. The report is as follows:--" The Bishop of Victoria in his speech from the Chair, carried on the thoughts which had been uppermost in the minds of many during the day, viz., thanksgiving and duty. There were grounds for thankfulness in the Mission field. They bad heard of Uganda, and of India, and of Japan. He would speak of China; and he could thankfully state that the proportion of confirmation candidates in South China had been proportionately as great as in Uganda'or Tinnevelly. Minister Wu struggled, and gave vent to It had been his joy during the three and a half cries of pain in Chinese and English. He drew his illustrations from the Fuh-Kien province. A critic of Missions, who thought that all Chinese converts were shams, had been led to change his opinion at the time of the persecution. This man had known many who had the choice of life or death; he had seen many converts brought down the river with their poor bodies bruised and broken becifuse they were Christians; and he had personally verified twenty five such cases in the place where he lived. And yet, added the Bishop quietly, during the year of that awful massacre-there were no fewer than 600 adult baptisms in the Province of Fuh Kien. #### INDICATIONS OF NATIONAL BANKRUPTCY

When the reptile press of the Continent was assuring the world that Great Britain was on tion of her resources in a war which was never to end, says the Pall Mall Gazette, the Eng resumption of the sinking fund and buying for the Post Office, the quotation will go to par or beyond. Pretty conclusive evidence of national bankruptcy-is it not? Lord Goschen went further, and pointed out that when the conversion from 3 per cent, took place in 1888 the quotation stood at ioti-On-merits and a 21 per cent, busias then, it would have been no higher than ky, and it is a fair inference that the shiprovement is the credit of the country is measured the the adifference of 13 points between this and the current figure. #### DRESSMAKING DEPARTMENT.

This section of our business is a new venture and has met with extraordinary success during the past 7 months.

All work cut and supervised-by our dressmaker who, having had High Class Colonial and Home experience has attained the knowledge required to connect Style and Fashion with comfort in creating suitable toilets for Eastern wear.

We intend making this department a specialty and ladies will do well to give us a trial.

Our London and Parisienne buyers have Instructions to keep us up to date and supplied with all the latest and most Fashionable Goods so that our patrons may be assured of procuring everything of the newest and best.

Ball Dresses, Bridal Gowns, Afternoon Costumes. Mourning orders executed at shortest possible Notice.

Space will not allow us to quote the thousands of articles stocked in this establishment but two words will convey all that is necessary viz GENERAL STORE. Do not fail to enquire for ANYTHING you may went
